

Day 1 - Monday, 16 December 2019
• Opening remarks • Vaccine safety concerns among medical workers Dr. Liudmila Mosina - WHO Europe • Updated training materials and course on vaccine safety Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center • Interactive group discussion of practical clinical cases (vaccine and fever) • From vaccine safety to vaccine hesitancy Dra. Maria Fernández Prada - Hospital Vital Álvarez Buylla • False vaccine contraindications: a real life issue Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center • Interactive group discussion of practical clinical cases (vaccine and seizures) • Vaccination in special situations Dr. Irene Rivero Calle - WHO Collaborating Center	>

RELATED INFORMATION

Training Course on Vaccine Safety - Programme

Day 2 - Tuesday, 17 December 2019
• Tuberculosis vaccines: present and future Prof. Dr. Carlos Martín Montañes - University of Zaragoza • Update on meningococcal disease and vaccines Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center • Vaccine development and production: Control and quality Dra. María Fernández Prada - Hospital Vital Álvarez Buylla • AEFIs review and update - what's new Dr. Irene Rivero Calle - WHO Collaborating Center • Heterologous effects of vaccines (or why vaccines are even better than expected) Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center	>

Day 3 - Wednesday, 18 December 2019
• Update on HPV and HPV vaccine: Towards cervical cancer elimination Prof. X. Bosch - Insituto Catalan de Oncología • Anxiety-triggered AEFIs and the golden minutes Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center • Update on rotavirus disease and vaccines Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center • Future of vaccines: Precision vaccines and Vaccinomics Prof. Dr. Federico Martín Torres - WHO Collaborating Center	>